

Alameda-Contra Costa Counties Math Educators (AC³ME)
is pleased to present a Mini Math Conference

Spring Forward into Math!

...including workshops on Everyday Math!

Saturday, April 17, 2010, 8:30 am to 12:30pm
at LeConte Elementary School, 2241 Russell Street,
in Berkeley (close to Ashby BART & Telegraph Ave.)

Join us for a morning of great math workshops presented by Bay Area expert teachers – Teachers Teaching Teachers!

Keynote: Ruth Cossey, Mills College

(Co-Author of the FAMILY MATH Book)

"Dealing with the Unexpected in the Math Classroom"

~ This event is free to all educators* ~

No pre-registration required!

NEW TEACHERS: Don't miss the math materials give-away!

*As a means to encourage and support our newest teachers we ask that educators with MORE than five years in the classroom bring a spare math manipulative, classroom material, resource book, game, or piece of children's literature that can be donated to an attending new teacher.
